

Michele McCormack

Whitefish Bay, WI
(414) 763-8305

October, 2005-Present-Anchor/Reporter, WDJT, Milwaukee

2007 Outstanding Performer, News Division, Weigel Broadcasting
2007 WI Broadcasters Assoc., Double Winner, News Writing

October, 1997-October, 2005-Reporter, WPVI, Philadelphia

George M. Steele Media Award, NJ Firefighters Association
Irish Person of the Year, Philadelphia Pastoral and Immigration Center
Scored exclusive interview with Marie Noe; the woman who admitted to smothering her eight children, later retold in the "Precious Doe" Law and Order episode

December, 1994-October, 1997-Anchor/Reporter, KMBC, Kansas City

Breaking News Emmy Nomination

August, 1993-December, 1994-Reporter, KWCH, Wichita

Series of exclusive interviews with quadruple murder convict Paul Kiser, later dubbed the modern day "In Cold Blood" murders

September, 1992-August, 1993-WGEM, Quincy, IL

Edward R. Murrow Award Winner for spot news coverage during the flood of '93

CHARITIES

Muscular Dystrophy Association, SE WI chapter
Chicago Rose of Tralee, Irish women's charity

EDUCATION

Pepperdine Univ., BA in Broadcasting
Carmel High School, Mundelein, IL