

Michelle Molison
michellemolison@yahoo.com
(602) 370-1051

Objective To obtain employment in a positive environment where I can utilize my education and professional journalism skills

Professional Experience

KKTV (CBS) - Colorado Springs, Colorado
September 2006 - November 2008

Anchor, Reporter and Producer

- Anchor 2 daily newscasts on station's digital channel
- Produce 6:30 p.m. newscast including writing every script and tease
- Report on breaking news for 10 p.m. newscast

KNAZ (NBC) – Flagstaff, Arizona
September 2004 – August 2006

Main Anchor and Producer

- Solo anchor nightly newscasts
- Produce newscasts, oversee staff of reporters and arrange live shots
- General assignment reporting on breaking news, spot news, and features
- Fill in for Meteorologist by producing and anchoring weathercasts

KDUH (ABC) - Scottsbluff, Nebraska
October 2003 – September 2004

Anchor and Reporter

- Anchor, produce, and report for 10 p.m. weekday newscast
- General assignment reporting on a daily basis
- Shoot, write and edit packages using DVC Pro
- Make beat calls, check police and court records, follow up on stories

KPHO (CBS) - Phoenix, Arizona
August 2002 – December 2002

News Intern

- Assist Investigative Team with undercover assignments, interviews, and case research
- Cover spot news stories alongside Reporters
- Monitor assignment desk, answer incoming phone calls from viewers, listen to police scanners and media alerts

Education Bachelor of Arts: Broadcast Journalism; Arizona State University, The Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Telecommunications
Bachelor of Science: Marriage & Family Studies/Child Development; Arizona State University

Skills

Honorable Mention for Spot News by Nebraska Associated Press Broadcasters
Proficient with Windows, Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, Access, Powerpoint), Internet, Email, NewsKing, AP News System, INews and WSI Weather System