

Brittany Bailey

Colorado Springs, CO

478.955.4312

brittanlynnbailey@gmail.com

EXPERIENCE

KRDO-TV, Colorado Springs, Colo.

October 2012-present

Morning/Noon News Anchor. Anchor 2.5-hour morning newscast in a competitive a.m. news market. Contribute to story coverage, write and produce supplemental stories, anchor live coverage from the field, anchor market's only one-hour noon newscast. Act as newsroom leader for reporters and producers. Host community events.

WBIR-TV, Knoxville, Tenn.

October 2006-October 2012

Anchor/Reporter/Photographer. Anchored highly rated weekend morning newscast and oversaw weekend assignments and reporters. Enterprised, researched, shot, wrote, edited and presented news reports. Developed and interviewed sources. Blazed the trail for backpack journalists at WBIR. Traveled solo to Sweden and the Arizona-Mexico border to bring back stories that were important to the viewers of East Tennessee. Hosted telethons, awards ceremonies.

WMAZ-TV, Macon, Ga.

August 2004 – October 2006

Anchor/Reporter. Researched, shot, wrote, edited and presented news reports. Developed and interviewed sources. Managed weekend assignments and newsroom associates. Posted stories to Web. Assisted in developing stories and training new reporters. Helped launch and anchor the first-ever Webcast at WMAZ. Co-hosted Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Telethon.

KSDK-TV, St. Louis, Mo.

June 2002 – August 2004

Field Reporter, producer, P.A. Interviewed sources. Researched and wrote packages. Worked on assignment desk, completed special research/investigative projects. Produced weekend edition of award-winning "Today in St. Louis" program. Stacked and wrote hour-long show; coordinated reporters, satellite interviews and live guests.

The Advocate, Newark, Ohio

August 2000 – June 2002

Education and diversity reporter. Developed and reported stories related to ten public school districts and several private schools for daily newspaper. Covered testing, literacy, funding and contract negotiations. Also reported on diversity issues, court cases and breaking news.

WKYT-TV, Lexington, Ky.

March 1999 – September 1999

Reporter and assignment editor. Developed, reported and delivered news and features in a competitive, three-station market. Covered spot news and reported live on a near-daily basis.

EDUCATION

Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.

Bachelor of Science from Medill School of Journalism in June 2000. Dean's List. Member of David Protess' Investigative Journalism class. Worked on death penalty cases in Illinois, Indiana and Texas. Entertainment anchor for Northwestern News Network.

SKILLS

Digital cameras and non-linear editing. Avid Newscutter, ENPS, iNews, AP Newscenter, Newsmaker, IBPublish, Social NewsDesk, Macintosh, PC, Windows, Word, Excel, WordPerfect, Microsoft Outlook, Filemaker Pro.