

Katie Kyros
(240) 381-0317
katiekyros@gmail.com

EXPERIENCE

FOX 45 WBFF: Freelance reporter (August 2020 - November 2020)

Write, produce, report 2 live lead stories a day focused on accountability of Maryland education officials, teachers' union and government agencies, and safety in schools, in the midst of the pandemic.

Scooped competitors every week, including breaking the story and leading coverage on pornographic audio that played on a board member's computer during a Baltimore County Board of Ed meeting — and sparked a state investigation

ABC 7 WJLA: Freelance reporter (July 2019 - May 2020)

Write, produce, report day-of-air stories. Live reporting. Write web articles and share online.

Help post to WJLA social media accounts (Facebook: 810k, Twitter 158k) and manage my own social media (Facebook work page: 4.3k, Twitter: 3k, Instagram: 1.8k)

News 12 New Jersey: Reporter (Nov. 2015 - Nov. 2018).

Reporter, correspondent for weekly show Power & Politics, fill-in anchor.

Live reporting from the White House, the Inauguration, the presidential campaign trail on the Christie beat in New Hampshire.

Gavel-to-gavel coverage of the Bridgegate trial, including an exclusive interview with a juror, as well as recent extensive coverage of Penn Station/Amtrak rail issues.

Responsible for Facebook Live reporting, Instagram, Snapchat and all-day Twitter presence.

Financial Buzz TV, financial buzz.com, New York City: Freelance Host (Sept 2014 Sept 2016).

Interviewer and on-air host for digital financial news site Financial Buzz.

WPMT-TV, Harrisburg-York: Reporter (April 2013 - Nov. 2015).

Lead nightside reporter and fill-in anchor. In Baltimore to cover the Freddie Gray protests, and Philadelphia for coverage of the deadly Amtrak 188 crash. Connected with sources near the scene of the derailment and came away with exclusive video from a nearby rooftop that none of the networks had. Reported several viral stories.

Clark Media, Frederick, MD: Producer, "Justice For Ethan" (2013 – 2015).

The documentary tells the story of Ethan Saylor, a young man with Down syndrome who died in police custody. Organized a fully-funded Kickstarter. Set up dozens of interviews about the grand jury investigation and Ethan's Law, which is the first of its kind in the country, mandating disability training for police officers in Maryland.

WHAG-TV, Hagerstown: MMJ, Anchor and Producer (May 2011 - June 2013).

L.A. Downtown News, Los Angeles: Reporter (July 2010 - December 2010).
L.A. Times Homicide Report, Los Angeles: Contributor (Jan. 2010 - May 2010).

EDUCATION

University of Southern California: Master of Arts in Broadcast Journalism.
University of Michigan, Ann Arbor: Bachelor of Arts in English and Political Science.

Please see my work clips at: <http://talentapes.com/KatieKyros>